1. Welcome to VIMIOSO

Vimioso is located in the extreme northeast of Portugal, in the heart of the Mirandese plateau, integrating Terra Fria transmontana, district of Bragança. The municipality of Vimioso is crossed by deep valleys on the Angueira, Maçãs and Sabor rivers, giving the brand its name: "Vales de Vimioso". The Municipality invests in the capacity of training, cooperation and social fixation, education, entrepreneurship, through the enhancement of existing endogenous resources, in the preservation and dissemination of the material and immaterial Heritage Industry, investing in the Incubator for Innovation in the Interior and Cross-Border Business ( 3INT) whose mission is to support entrepreneurs and companies, national and international, in the development of business ideas and business projects, for interior innovation and fostering cross-border relations.

The tourism area is a structured bet and, after the pandemic, it intends to develop and work on everything it already does. It intends to offer the visitor a new commitment to the economic development of the territory, focusing on social innovation, allowing, in the future, the sustainability of the territory.

It is in its schist and granite houses that you can taste real delicacies from smoked meat, a roasted goat or a Mirandese steak, all properly seasoned with the region's pure olive oil.

Vimioso is more than tradition. It's also quality of life! A council that continues to create modern infrastructure and equipment for its citizens.

There's nothing like ending the week with a massage at Termas da Terronha in Vimioso and devote your Saturday to the well-being of body, soul and mind.

With an economic development based on agriculture, Vimioso is an unexplored municipality with good investment incentives in the trade and tourism sectors.

Dare to discover Vimioso!

Vimioso, a municipality with doors wide open!

SANTA CASA DA MISERICÓRDIA OF VIMIOSO

We employ 75 employees, most of whom reside in Vimioso, who make a relevant contribution to Vimioso society and the local economy, and whose dedication and professionalism should be praised here.

There is no documentation that allows us to list all the works carried out by Misericórdia de Vimioso throughout history. In fact, a fire that broke out in the City Hall in 1952 spread to the adjacent buildings of the chapel of Misericórdia and the municipal jail, which were totally destroyed. The images that are installed in the Chapel of Nossa Senhora das Dores and the bell of the Chapel were saved.

In 1940, the Hospital da Misericórdia (the Old Hospital) was created and was installed in an adapted private house, located at the end of Rua da Calçada, where it operated until 1961. It was then transferred to Largo de S. Sebastião, where it now has excellent facilities in a building built from scratch (the Hospital Novo), an old aspiration of the people of our municipality.

In addition to a subsidy from the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation and significant donations from some benefactors, there was a great mobilization of the entire county, culminating in a procession of offerings on the opening day in a festive atmosphere.

We must mention the names of Mr. Francisco Anacleto Pereira, then provider, and Dr. Sidónio Augusto Fernandes, as the great workers of such initiatives.

Subsequently, the Hospital was deactivated and replaced by a Health Centre, with Misericórdia receiving a monthly income from the Government until it was transferred to the new Health Centre, owned by the Health Mystery. It is in this building that our Continued Care Unit operates. A new valence of our Misericórdia, with a capacity of 22 beds. In social support, this Misericórdia began with the installation of a Day Centre, having increased and diversified its activity over the last few years, supporting today 166 users in all its fields. We maintain an ATL for around 30 children and a laundry service, an insertion company that, in addition to all the Misericórdia service, is open to the entire population.

JEWISH MUSEUM OF CARÇÃO

Traditions and vestiges of a resistant Jewish community.

It's a small museum about Marrana (a term originating in Spain, pejorative, meaning Jews forced to convert to Christianity but professing the Jewish faith in secret) memory and culture, the culture of crypto-Jews (supposedly Jews Christians because they were baptized, but professed the Jewish faith in secret) who, removed by the imposition of an orthodox Judaism, created their own forms of religiosity.

The collection of epigraphic and household materials from this cryptojudaism stands out in this space. A lintel with a carved Lion of Judah stands out, saved from a ruined building.

It is also given prominence to a very significant collection of prayers that Carção Jews were in the sixteenth to eighteenth centuries. A long memorial lists the names of the inhabitants of Carção that the Inquisition arrested and punished.

INTERPRETATION CENTER FOR TRADITIONAL DOVECOTES

The omnipresence of the traditional dovecotes is obvious to those who walk through the Trás-os-Montes landscape, but the doubts that arise about these structures are rarely clarified: Why do they have different shapes? What are they for? Why is it that many of them are far from everything? The Traditional Dovecote Interpretation Center (CIPT) answers these questions and raises many others that will further arouse interest in this unique rural heritage.

The CIPT was created in 2014 with the objective of making known the traditional dovecotes existing in the region of Nordeste Trás-os-Montes and, at the same time, being a space for sharing knowledge on the techniques of construction of rural heritage. It also aims to disseminate knowledge about this type of construction and be the starting point for discovering the dovecotes and their cultural, architectural and ecological value.

During the visit, it is also possible, in the company of a map, to take a tour through the village of Uva, which has more than 40 traditional dovecotes, in order to get to know up close these architectural structures that fill the landscape with its simplicity.

In addition to the more than 40 dovecotes in the village, there are many relevant examples of traditional architecture, becoming natural elements worthy of interest and the stories to be shared by its inhabitants

HOUSING

Housing in large urban centers (such as Lisbon and Porto) has been increasing its prices considerably. In the city of Porto, and considering a family of 3 people, the monthly rental value for a T2 can vary between €800 and €2,500 per month.

In Vimioso, for the same household and the same type of property (T2), monthly rental prices vary between €350 and €1,500.

FIXED EXPENSES

In addition to the expenses with the rental of the accommodation, we also consider fixed expenses, which include the services of supply of electricity, gas, water and communications. Since the market values are regulated and practiced by private entities, the values in the two comparative points are equal, with an average monthly amount, which varies between 80 € and 150 €.

ALIMENTATION

For the same household and excluding meals made in restaurants or similar, the average monthly cost of purchases of food and daily life varies between €400 and €600 in large urban centers.

On the other hand, the average value in Vimioso varies between €300 and €500 per month, due to the ease of cultivation and the greater proximity of producers. We get products at lower prices with higher quality standards and we also value the values of community sharing, where the exchange of food products between neighbors is common.

TRANSPORT

The public transport network is more dense in urban centers, due to the need to move a number of people daily, as opposed to the circulation needs felt in Vimioso.

On average, a family with a household of 3 people, can spend between €30 to €80 per month on public transport in the monthly subscription mode, and these same values may increase if this mode is not considered.

In Vimioso there is a municipal transport network that ensures travel between the various parishes, as well as connections to the nearest cities, such as Bragança. On average, the same family, considering 6 trips a day for 22 days, at an average value of €2.5 per impulse, would spend €330 a month.

EDUCATION

Varying according to the young person's school year, and considering only the public offer for illustrative purposes, monthly expenses with education in urban centers vary between €400 and €900 a month.

These values may be associated with other additions if there is a need to resort to extended hours, food or special services.

In Vimioso, there are several political options for the democratization of access to education that allow a lower rate of effort for families, with various incentives and exemptions, applied from pre-school to higher education.

AVERAGE COST OF LIVING

For a family with a 3-member household, the monthly cost of living would be:
